A New Era in Education for Yanchep

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

Yanchep, named after the Yanget which is a Noongar word for the Bullrushes that abound in the wetlands of Yanchep National Park. This was a major meeting place for the Whadjuk and Yued peoples of the Noongar Nation who have cared for this Boodja/ Country for thousands of years. We would like to pay our respects to their Elders, past and present, and extend this respect to all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and their ongoing connection to Country.

Building Stages

The School will be delivered in three stages, with Stage One commencing in early 2026; development will align with enrolment growth and school community needs.

Facilities—including classrooms, specialist areas, and recreational spaces—will be constructed progressively in phases to support the needs of staff and the growing student body. In the interim, the School office will be temporarily located at St James' Anglican School, where enrolments will be managed.

With a shared Executive Principal and close ties to St James', this partnership allows St Matthew's to draw on established expertise, staffing and resources—ensuring a strong and confident start.

Stage One

Establishes the foundation of the School, including a purpose-built Early Learning Centre, a Junior School building, and a specialist Foods/Science room to support hands-on, inquiry-based learning.

Stage Two

Expands the campus with a Stage One Senior School precinct, hard courts and a sports field for physical education and co-curricular activities.

Stage Three

Enhances the campus with a Stage Two Senior School precinct, a second Junior School building, a Trade Training Centre for vocational pathways, and a state-of-the-art Gymnasium.

Looking Ahead

Future development will include a Chapel, Library, Administration Building and a Performing Arts Centre (PAC), ensuring a well-rounded and inspiring learning environment for generations to come.

Curriculum Designed for Growth

St Matthew's Anglican School will offer a curriculum designed to challenge, inspire and prepare students for a rapidly changing world. Our approach balances academic rigour with creativity, critical thinking, and real-world learning, while also nurturing the values and character that help young people thrive.

Early and Junior Years (Kindergarten to Year 6)

In the early years, students will build strong foundations in literacy and numeracy, guided by their classroom teacher across key learning areas including English, Mathematics, Science, Humanities, and Technology.

Specialist teachers will deliver enriching programs in Languages, Health and Physical Education, and The Arts—ensuring each student benefits from a well-rounded education from the beginning of their learning journey.

Senior School Years (Years 7 to 12)

As students move through the School, the curriculum will broaden to include a wide range of subjects that support both academic and vocational pathways. Students will be able to pursue areas such as English, Mathematics, Science, Humanities and Social Sciences (HASS), Religious Studies, Languages, The Arts, and Technology and Enterprise.

There will be opportunities to take part in Business Studies, VET courses, and school-based apprenticeships, offering practical, hands-on learning that prepares students for employment or further study beyond Year 12.

A School That Looks Beyond the Classroom

At St Matthew's, learning will continue past the classroom door. The School will grow to offer a broad co-curricular program to extend students' interests and develop their talents across sport, the Arts, leadership, service, and outdoor education.

- Sporting teams will represent the School in local competitions, with inter-house events held in Athletics, Swimming and Cross Country.
- Music and the Performing Arts will be a strong focus, with instrumental lessons, choirs, and performance groups encouraged to share their work at school and community events.
- Drama, debating and public speaking will be actively supported, helping students grow in confidence and communication.
- Outdoor education will be a key feature from early years onwards, offering students the chance to challenge themselves and build resilience in real-world settings.

Programs will be thoughtfully developed to reflect student needs, staff expertise, and the strengths of the local environment—helping every student find their place, their purpose, and their voice.

Christian and Values Education (CAVE)

A distinctive part of the curriculum at St Matthew's will be Christian and Values Education (CAVE)—a program delivered across all year levels. CAVE invites students to think deeply about meaning, purpose, and their place in the world. It encourages respectful dialogue, ethical inquiry, and personal reflection, in keeping with the Anglican tradition.

LEARN FROM ME

Pastoral Care and Wellbeing

St Matthew's Anglican School will be a caring and inclusive community, grounded in the values of the Anglican tradition. Every student will be known, supported and encouraged to flourish—academically, socially and spiritually.

Pastoral Care will be a shared responsibility across the School. Through Pastoral Care Groups and dedicated House time, students will build strong relationships and feel a genuine sense of belonging. The House system will support wellbeing, connection, and healthy competition in both cultural and sporting life, with siblings placed in the same House to foster family unity.

Faith and values will be embedded in daily school life. Weekly Chapel services, led by the School Chaplain, will bring the community together in worship and reflection. The Christian and Values Education (CAVE) program will guide students to explore meaning, purpose, and ethical living—helping them grow as thoughtful, compassionate individuals.

Partnering with Families

At AngliSchools, we know that students thrive when schools and families work together. Parents and caregivers are valued members of the School community, and we see them as essential partners in each student's learning journey.

We encourage open, respectful communication between home and school, where families feel comfortable sharing concerns, celebrating progress, and staying connected with their child's experience.

There are many ways to get involved—from joining the Parents and Friends Group to volunteering in classrooms, the library activities, or at school events. At St Matthew's, every family will be invited to help shape a welcoming and vibrant community where students feel supported to do their best every day.
